

AST Happenings January 9, 2009

Happy New Year!

Do you have any news you'd like to share with the AST community? Why not make a resolution to share your news and send it along to your communications department for distribution (devoffice@asttheology.ns.ca). There are lots of things going on around campus and beyond, so let's keep each other informed! AST Happenings is distributed to the AST Board of Governors, students, staff, and faculty, as well as local alumni and friends.

CCEPA Trust in Education Presentation Rescheduled

Part I of the Trust in Education series originally scheduled for December 11 has been rescheduled and will now take place at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 10, 2009, at Saint Mary's University in the Sobey School of Business. Is our education system doing what it is supposed to? Does it educate students to do, to be, and to know? Dr. Paul Cappon, President and CEO of the Canadian Council on Learning, will address these and other questions. All are welcome. For further information, please refer to the CCEPA web site <http://www.ccepa.ca>.

News from Soho Kitchen

Expanded hours of operation! Starting Monday, January 12, for a 2-week trial period, Soho Kitchen is expanding their hours of operation. Now you can enjoy a tasty dinner at the same reasonable prices you've come to expect. Tell all your friends and help make this a success! New Hours: 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday to Friday.

Old-time jazz is back! The Chalmers Doane Trio is back for a return engagement and an evening of music and fun on Thursday, January 22, from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. in the AST cafeteria. And if you can't make it, you'll be pleased to know they'll be back for monthly engagements. Stay tuned to AST Happenings for upcoming dates. Dinner will be available at reasonable prices (payment by cash or cheque only). Reservations are recommended – please call 423-8846.
