Atlantic School of Theology Launches New Academic Program Diploma in Youth Ministry

The Rev. Canon Eric Beresford, President of Atlantic School of Theology, is pleased to announce that the AST Board of Governors has approved the launch of a new Diploma Program in Youth Ministry.

This program is designed for leaders of youth who wish to deepen and broaden their skills for ministry with young people. The diploma program combines required and elective units of study with practical experience in the leadership of youth. The first unit of study for the new Diploma program coincides with AST's Best Practices Institute on October 1-2, 2010, and features workshop leader Rodger Nishioka, a specialist in the area of youth and young adults.

For more information and application details, please consult the AST website www.astheology.ns.ca/youthministry.
