I am pleased to announce the appointment of the Rev. Dr. Susan MacAlpine-Gillis as Director of Atlantic School of Theology's Diploma in Youth Ministry for the period Jan 16, 2017, to May 31, 2017.

Susan is well known to the AST community as an alumna of the school, a long-time adjunct instructor, and now as Assistant Professor of Pastoral Theology. Susan brings considerable educational, administrative, and pastoral skills to this work, and AST is grateful for her willingness to step into this position until a permanent appointment can be made.

Please join me in congratulating Susan and welcoming her to her (second) new position!
