AST Welcomes Archdeacon Debra Burleson as New Director of Anglican Formation

Atlantic School of Theology welcomes the news that Archdeacon Debra Burleson has been appointed Director of Anglican Formation, effective September 1, 2011. The official announcement from the Anglican Diocese of Nova Scotia and PEI appeared in the Anglican Net News last week.

Archdeacon Burleson is no stranger to AST and graduated from the M.Div. program in 2005. She is a former member of AST Senate and the Accreditation Self-Study Team. She served as Rector of the Parish of Seaforth, a five-point rural parish on Nova Scotia's Eastern Shore, and as Priest-in-Charge of St. Luke's in Dartmouth. She continues to serve as Archdeacon for the Eastern Shore.

We look forward to her contribution to campus life and hope you will join us in wishing her a warm welcome.
