AST Appoints Susan MacAlpine-Gillis as Recruitment Coordinator

*Rev. Dr. Susan
MacAlpine-Gillis*

It is with great pleasure that I announce the appointment of Rev. Dr. Susan MacAlpine-Gillis as Recruitment Coordinator at Atlantic School of Theology.

Susan, as you may know, has been in this role on an interim basis for several months. I am thrilled that we have reached the point at which we can formalize her ongoing appointment to this half-time position. In this role, Susan is the primary point of contact for all students who are thinking of studying at AST and works to ensure that they are guided and welcomed, and provided with the information, contacts and resources they need for a smooth process leading to an application to AST. And she does it all with warm and genuine hospitality.

This position reports to Linda Moxsom-Skinner as Director of Advancement, allowing close coordination between our marketing and recruitment efforts. Susan is a wonderful ambassador for AST. Her decades of experience in pastoral ministry, her academic credentials, her experience as an educator and as Co-Coordinator of AST's Summer Distance Master of Divinity Program – are all tremendous assets of Susan's for this position.

Please join me in congratulating Susan!

Regards,

Rev. Canon Neale Bennet
