

CALL FOR HONOURARY DOCTOR OF DIVINITY DEGREE NOMINATIONS
FOR CONVOCATION 2023

Nominations:

The Honourary Degree Committee invites Doctor of Divinity honoris causa nominations from the members of the Atlantic School of Theology Senate, Board of Governors, Founding Parties, students in-course and graduates. A maximum of two (2) appointments will be made in any year.

All submitted nominations are confidential. No approach is to be made to a candidate. If confidentiality is breached, the Honourary Degree Committee will not proceed with consideration of the candidate.

The Committee considers all received nominations and presents its selection(s) to Senate for approval. Once the President has contacted the recipient(s) and received confirmation of their acceptance, the names of recipients will be made public.

Criteria:

AST's Doctor of Divinity honoris causa is awarded to persons who exemplify the ecumenical ethos of the university as reflected in our mission to serve by shaping faithful and effective ordained and lay leaders and understanding among communities of faith, and who would be perceived as bridge-builders. Bridge building may begin inside or outside of the specific faith traditions that are most central to the life of AST. The degree reflects the theological commitments of AST and our aspirational vision as a university that builds bridges with different religious traditions and communities beyond any religious tradition.

AST may award the Doctor of Divinity honoris causa to persons whose public views are consistent with the ecumenical ethos, and who have made outstanding lifelong contributions in any of the following: church, community, business, public service, culture, arts, and education.

Recipients will typically inhabit the Christian tradition, but they may also inhabit a different tradition. If possible they will have local connections, but may also be honoured on the basis of national or international reputation. They should embody who we are, but may also help show us who we aspire to be.

Submissions:

Please make all nominations in writing, outlining the reasons for nomination and how the criteria of selection are met by the nominee(s), to:
